THE SWEET-BRIER.

We make no apology of inserting here a fresh little poem by a San Francisco lady:

My heart grows tired as I sit to-day
In the midsummer air;
So I close my eyes and think of the Past—
Of a picture there—
I see two children in search of flowers
At the foot of the hill,
Where, nestling among the fresh, sweet clover,
Their aprons they fill
With buttercups yellow and primrose buds
And daisies gay.
Then parting the grasses and weeds—behold!
A low bending spray—
A sweet brier bush! the stray little thing,
How could it grow there?
All cuddled away among the long grass
And fighting for air.
You modest, sweet darling! Come make your debut!
You were born to be seen,
To exquisitely bloom, and lift up your head
As proud as a queen!
You're no little daisy or violet meek
To hide near the ground;
But graceful to grow, and to smilingly twine
Your pink wreaths round
Our window-shade, and over our door:
And soon we'll find
Your wanton sweets pervade each breath
Of summer wind.
You ne'er can grow to glorious right
Thus kept from light;
But lifted to sunshine and freedom you'll thrive,
And gladden our sight!

Uprooting the bush, we carried it home,
And planted it;
The south door was rose-enwreathed,
When batted in dew,
The humming-birds came—then drowsy bees,
For dainty fare,
And coquettes loved its light pink blooms
To grace their hair.
And O, when the rain came pattering down,
In freshening shower,
Ineffably sweet was the air around
That matchless flower!

O, wait here now, through the visioned past,
Thou rose-scented wind!
Bring that sweet-brier's breath! Bring the grace of that time
To soothe my mind
And charm my soul from its thirsting pain!
Ah well! Ah well!
I'll think not of self—the Lord is good—
And who can tell
How many hearts like that fair flower
Are smothered from light!
And tender care, and kept below
Their proper right,
Which, if translated to kinder thoughts
And sunnier spot,
Would rise to noble heights, of which
They now dream not;
And sweeten lives and gladden hearts,
And lighten care.

Till gathered with the flowers of God they bloom
In pastures fair!

MARY VIOLA TISDALE.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 1867.

A HARD THURST.—The London Times having spoken of Lord Russell's recent, after-dinner speech about his American policy as "an unexpected acknowledgment of error," is thus sharply taken to task for the unfortunate phrase by the London News: "Inasmuch as our contemporary has never been anxious to procure the noble lord a reputation for infallibility, it must be the mere acknowledgment of error, and not its existence, which astonishes him. No doubt Lord Russell would have only followed a conspicuous example if he had taken a contrary course; but we are not sure that a journalist who in the crisis of the American war, published an article to show that slavery had the sanction of Holy Scripture, and now, without shame, taunts the fallen slaveholding aristocracy with 'consecrating slavery by the perverted sanctions of religion,' is the best judge of the noble lord's conduct. In both cases, in that of the journal and that of the statesman, we form our expectations from previous conduct, and whatever fault Lord Russell may have, the sincerity which friend and foe alike recognize in him, leaves no room for surprise at his frank and manly acknowledgment of an error into which he fell in company with some of the most eminent of his contemporaries."

POSTAL.—On October 1st, 1867, the new postal treaty with England goes into effect. Newspapers and circulars are charged two cents each in Great Britain; newspapers and other printed matter, over two ounces, four cents for each four ounces; patterns or samples of merchandise, eight cents each four ounces. Postage must be prepaid. The wrappers on printed matter must be open on the sides or end. Sample packets are not to exceed two feet long and one wide, and must not be of the intrinsic value which excludes them from mails. All articles of a salable nature or having a market value are reduced to the postage on letters. San Francisco is the only office of exchange west of the Mississippi.

"Pa, I know why that old-fashioned pistol of your'n that grandpa fit with in the Revolution, is called a horse pistol." "Why my son?" "Because it kicks so."

SALUTES AND SALUTATIONS.—To those of our readers who occasionally inquire of us which should give the sign of recognition the man or woman, we commend the following remarks. They are not exactly in our line. We are not much afraid of Mrs. Grundy, and would be liable to give wrong advice were we to undertake to do it upon our own responsibility. But as this comes from an authoritative source, a lady, who is much in favor with the inhabitants of Japonicadom, therefore we unhesitatingly accept its decisions in matters of etiquette.

A lady must not first recognize a gentleman by bowing before he can salute her. She is to judge of whether she wishes to appear to know him. Should she recognize him, she should raise his hat from his head with the hand that is furthest from the lady and return her salutation with a slight inclination of the body. He must not claim acquaintance of his own accord, neither should he of necessity consider he has been "cut" because the lady did not recognize him. It is quite possible she may not have observed him. A lady need not stop to speak to a gentleman in the street she knows. Should she do so, however, the gentleman should at once stop, no matter how urgent his business. He can at least stop time enough to say he cannot stop any longer. When the lady wishes to end the conversation, she makes an inclination of the head as a sign thereof, and the gentleman should at once take his leave. If the lady moves onward, still talking, the gentleman should turn back and walk with her. Married ladies can do as they please in these matters. It is not etiquette for young married ladies to do more than bow to gentlemen of their acquaintance if they meet them in the street, unless, of course, the gentlemen are related to them. Mrs. Grundy would, however, perhaps object to "cousins" being included among the privileged class. Unless a lady is intimately acquainted with a gentleman, she should merely bow, not give her hand, when meeting him. In her own home she may—even she should—welcome all comers with a shake of the hand.

When Sir Walter Manny and his men returned from a successful sortie out of Hennebont, Froissart tells us "the Countess of Montfort came down from the castle to meet them, and with a most cheerful countenance kissed Sir Walter Manny and all his companions, one after the other, like a noble and valiant dame."

"Why don't you wheel that barrow of coals, Meh?" said a learned minor to one of his sons. "It's not a very hard job, there is an inclined plane to relieve you." "Ah," replied Meh, who had more relish for wit than work, "the plane may be inclined, but hang me if I am."

An exchange says that the girls in some parts of Pennsylvania are so hard up for husbands, that they sometimes take up with lawyers and constables, and even printers. This is a great slander.

In Assam, India, the tigers eat one man on an average, for every six of their species killed.

Copy of the Report of the Committee of Awards at the Fair of the AMERICAN INSTITUTE NEW YORK, 1865.

To the FLORENCE SEWING MACHINE CO. for the Best Family Sewing Machine,

HIGHEST Premium: Gold MEDAL!

REASONS:

1st.—Its simplicity and great range of work.

2d.—The reversible Feed Motion.

3d.—The perfect finish and substantial manner in which the Machine is made.

4th.—The rapidity of its working and the quality of the work done.

5th.—The self-adjusting Tension.

The Florence was awarded the first and highest premium at the State Fair of California, the only Fair on the Pacific coast at which any two domestic Sewing Machines were exhibited in competition.

The Florence received the only premium awarded, by the Mechanics Institute of San Francisco, in 1864 and 1865, to any Sewing Machine, Sewing Machine Co., or agent. The claim of a competitor to a medal is without any foundation whatever.

Wherever the Florence has been brought in competition with other Sewing Machines, it has always been declared the best. It is the most simple, the most substantial, the most efficient, and its use is easily learned. Every Machine sold is guaranteed in the full sense of the word.

A CARD FROM THE

AMERICAN WATCH COMPANY,

Of Waltham, Mass.

This Company has been to inform the public that they commenced operations in 1850, and their factory now covers four acres of ground, and has cost more than a million dollars, and employs over 700 operatives. They produce 5,000 Watches a year, and make and sell not less than one-half of all the watches sold in the United States.

The difference between their manufacture and the European, is briefly this: European are made almost entirely by hand, and the result is of necessity a lack of that uniformity, which is indispensable to correct time-keeping. Both the eye and the hand of the most skillful operative must vary, but it is a fact that, except watches of the higher grades, are the product of the cheapest labor of Switzerland and the result is the worrier—Aucres, Lepines and so-called Patent Levers—which soon cost more in attempted repairs, than their original cost. Common workmen, boys and women, buy the rough separate parts of these watches from various factories, polish and put them together, and take to the nearest watch merchant, who cleans and engraves them with any name or brand that may be ordered.

How American Watches are made.

The American Watch is made by no such uncertain process—and by no such incompetent workmen. All the Company's operations from the reception of the raw materials to the completion of the watch, are carried on under one roof, and under one skillful and competent direction. But the greatest disadvantage of a foreign watch, is the fact that their several parts are all made by the finest, the most perfect and delicate machinery ever brought to the aid of human industry. Every one of the more than a hundred parts of every watch is made by a machine—that infallibly reproduces every succeeding part with the most invariable accuracy. It was only necessary to make one perfect watch of any particular style and then to adjust the hundred machines necessary to reproduce every part of that watch, and it follows that succeeding watches must be like it.

The Company respectfully submit their watches on their merits only. They claim to make

A Better Article for the Money

by their improved mechanical processes than can be made under the old-fashioned handicraft system. They manufacture watches of every grade, from a good, low-priced and substantial article, to solid silver hunting cases, to the finest chronometer, and also ladies' watches in plain gold or the finest enamel and jeweled case, but the indispensable requisite of all their watches is that they shall be GOOD TIMEKEEPERS. It should be remembered that, except their single lowest grade named the "Home Watch Company, Boston," ALL Watches made by them by a special certificate, and this warranty is good as long as the watch remains in the Company or its agents.

ARE FULLY WARRANTED

SEMI-WEEKLY ENQUIRER.

DOZIER METALLURGIC COMPANY.—The following officers have been elected for the above named company: E. L. Bradley, President; M. S. Gardner, Secretary; Dr. D. W. Strong, Treasurer. An assessment of three per cent. on the assessable stock has been levied. It is the expectation of the company to expend about $10,000 in the erection of a furnace and refinery in the Owens river region. Dr. Dozier is to start early next week and push the work as rapidly as possible.

A NEW AMALGAMATOR.—A New York correspondent of the Bulletin thus glowingly portrays the excellence of an amalgamator which he claims as a great improvement on all amalgamating contrivances now in use:

"I intended to tell you in this letter something about the new 'amalgamator' invented in this city three years ago, which has since been subjected to the most trying and thorough tests under the auspices of a wealthy company, with a view to the complete perfection of the machine before actual introduction at the mines. I have studied its principle thoroughly, have seen it in operation, have examined its results, and am prepared to say that it is as far superior to other known methods of getting the metal from the quartz as the locomotive is to the old 'onestoga' wagon for purposes of transportation. The comparison is a homely one, but I am too sanguine of the excellence of the invention to express the differences between it and previous inventions in less exciting terms. With a single machine, the company which owns the patent has extracted during the last three months over $6,000 in bullion from the refuse tailings of North Carolina mines. I don't desire to puff the company, or puff its patent, and for that reason mention no names; but I know the interest that is felt in all improvements that tend to increase the profits of mining, and I am bound to give your readers the news, assuring them that I have not misstated this matter beyond my ability to prove every assertion.

THE CHILDREN OF ISRAEL.—A member of the Hebrew Benevolent Society sends us a communication addressed to the Children of Israel of California, which reads as follows: "The poor and aged of our people resident in the Holy Land call upon us in this their saddest time of need. Let us contribute of our worldly goods for their assistance, that want and misery may not drive from the tombs of our common fathers this self-sacrificing and steadfast band. They did not go there from mercenary motives; but that in that hallowed spot they might invoke the blessing of the Almighty upon their brethren throughout the world. Let us, then, awake to the necessities of the hour, be charitable, and do well that work which God has enjoined upon us. Frequent appeals have been received from them, but none as urgent as the present. Therefore assemble together and do what charity and your love of Israel may prompt you to do. 'Cast your bread upon the waters,' and God's blessing and the prayers of his pious but needy people at Jerusalem will be your reward. And ye daughters of Israel, always kind, merciful and ready to do good, leave not the work to others alone. Give freely of your means; gather all offerings of the faithful and see that this appeal meets with a favorable response from all the people, and that all donations are sent to Sir Moses Montefiore, London.—Union.

WHY THEY DID IT.—One of the newly elected Supervisors of San Francisco, Stanton, was serenaded the other night, and, as in duty bound, invited the choristers to partake. While doing so there was a little speaking, as is customary, and the Bulletin says: "One of the speakers on the occasion explained that the Germans throughout the State were organized to oppose stringent Sabbath legislation, and voted with the Democracy solely to carry out their point in this particular."

THE SENATE.—The Bee says "It is probable, however, that one of the hold-overs, Murphy, will act with the Democracy. And this will give the Union men 23 against 18. Only 14 of the hold-overs can be counted on as Union men." Wonder what spite you have against Murphy that you abuse him in this manner?

THE CHICAGO POST.—In reply to a statement in a New York paper that the game of keno had left that city, says "it leaves every Sunday morning by steamboat—returning in the evening."

OUT AT LAST.—The plant in Mr. Potter's garden at Oakland has bloomed at last, and is now in all its glory. It is forty-five feet high.

HARMONIOUS.—The Oregon Herald thinks U. S. Grant a worse traitor than Jeff. Davis. The Richmond Enquirer and other Southern papers name him for next President.

THANKS.—We have received from Hon. Wm. Higby, member of Congress, message and accompanying documents to the second session of the thirty-ninth Congress.

HEAVY JOKE.—The Dramatic Chronicle asking the Democrats to "go slow" when the public crib is before them.

The latest returns received from all parts of the State up to the hour of going to press give Haight a majority of over 9,000.

The cornerstone of the Deaf and Dumb Asylum will be laid on the 26th inst. with appropriate ceremonies.

Higby's majority over Coffroth in Nevada county is 235.

ESSENCE OF JAMAICA GINGER.

THIS valuable preparation, contain- ing in a highly concentrated form all the properties of the Jamaica Ginger, has become one of the most popular domestic remedies for all diseases of the stomach and digestive organs.

As a tonic it will be found invaluable to persons recovering from debility, whether produced by fever or otherwise, for whilst it imparts to the system all the glow and vigor that can be produced by wine or brandy, it is entirely free from the reactionary effects that follow the use of spirits of any kind.

It is also an excellent remedy for females who suffer from difficult menstruation, giving almost immediate relief to the spasms that so frequently accompany that period.

It gives immediate relief to Nausea, caused by the riding in a railroad car, or by sea-sickness, or other causes. It is also valuable as an external application for Gout, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, etc.
